THE FIRST ANNUAL PICNIC.

Minnesota Day, Feb. 24th, Celebrated at Twilido Cottage on The Ocean Beach.

LARGE NUMBER IN ATTENDANCE.

* * *

The first annual celebration of Minnesota Day, in the form of a beach picnic was held Wednesday, February 24 at Twilido Cottage, Daytona Beach. The day proved to be one of the most balmy of the season and the Minnesotans were present to the number of about eighty.

A large Minnesota banner of maroon and gold decorated the front of the cottage, while on the beach were the words "Minnesota Welcome" formed of pine cones strewing in bold relief against a background of silvery-white beach sand.

At noon a bountiful and elaborate picnic luncheon was daintily served by the ladies in the main room and on the porch of Twilido Cottage, which prepared the way for the very interesting program which followed it, and which was followed by the singing of "Hail, Minnesota" by the entire party.

The idea of holding a Minnesota reunion was conceived and carried out by Mr. and Mrs. Asa Paine, of Minneapolis, who were ably assisted by the Decorating Committee, consisting of Judge C. H. Pond and daughters J. E. Glass and neighbors, and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Koch, all of Minneapolis.

After luncheon Mr. Paine made a pleasant welcome address and introduced, as chairman of the entertainment, Judge Pond, who, in a bright and witty speech, paid some very graceful compliments to Minneapolis and her sister city, St. Paul.

The song "Carnival," and an encore, by Rev. M. B. Church, followed, with violin accompaniment by W. E. Blodgett, who played all the accompaniments for Mrs. Church, and also recited most delightfully a poem entitled, "Hello! Hello!"

J. A. Ridgway, secretary of the Minneapolis Park Board, next spoke very interestingly and instructively on the parkways of Minneapolis, which was followed by another charming solo, "Minnesota Land," and encore, by Mr. Church.

Mr. Paine then gave an interesting talk on "Automobile Roads in Florida and Minnesota," and was followed by Mr. Koch, who chose for his subject "The Fine Arts of Minneapolis," and in his address paid tribute to Artist Koch-ler of that city.

Mrs. Church again delighted the party with a solo, "Just My Style," following which W. H. Reed, of Hastings, Minn., offered a resolution of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Paine for their happy thought of holding the celebration and their efforts toward making it so pleasant an event, and it was unanimously voted that the 24th of February be hereafter regularly celebrated as Minnesota Day.

All joined in singing "America," and so closing the first celebration of Minnesota Day, a day always to be pleasantly remembered by those participating.

Following is a list of those present:

Asa Paine, Mrs. Asa Paine, Mrs. C. B. Pond, Mrs. C. W. Hackett, Eleanor Moe, Mrs. H. Wachenheimer, Edwin M.,

FAST SUBJECT DISCUSSED BY LADIES.

"Automobilia" Was The Timely and Interesting Question—Session a Delightful One.

A NOTED LECTURER IS COMING.

* * *

The Palmetto Club Calendar for February 25th showed the afternoon would be devoted to "Automobilia."

"There is a necessary limit to our achievements, but none to our attempts," was the quotation at the head of the page.

Mrs. Horace Stewart had charge of the music, and the program opened with a Ballad from "The Bohemian Girl," played by the Clarendon orchestra.

Mrs. Thorne White gave a good paper on "American Automobiles," from their beginning up to the present time, ending with a humorous poem on "The Automobile."

Miss Pearl Spaulding delighted the audience with her sweet singing of "Long Ago," and "In an encore, sang, "Shine, Little Glow Worm." Miss Spaulding was accompanied by the orchestra.

A magazine article on an auto trip entitled "The Road to Steamboat Springs," was pleasantly read by Mrs. Graham Thompson.

The orchestra gave another beautiful selection which was much enjoyed.

Mrs. T. H. White then read an article called "The Automobile," which created much mirth.

The president announced that there would be a lecture on the work of the Audubon Society, which would be free to all that wished to attend.

The General Federation has set March 10th as a special day to be devoted to civics and the Civic Department will hold a meeting at 3 o'clock that afternoon.

Nomination slips were distributed and members asked to fill them out and hand them in next meeting.

The child artists gave two pleasing selections, and the audience was delighted to hear that the children would give an entertainment in the club room early next week.

Mr. Wilkinson gave a short talk on the American Woman's League.

Cream and delicious cake were served and a social hour enjoyed.

The afternoon closed with a short business meeting.

Miss Coughlin and Miss Beach were the hostesses for the afternoon.

Hospital and Sanitarium Notes.

Mrs. Louise Webber has sufficiently recovered so to leave the Daytona Hospital and Sanitarium after seven weeks, illness. She left yesterday for New Smyrna to visit her sister, Mrs. Dunnick.

Mrs. G. L. Johnson has returned to her home at Daytona Beach after a two weeks' stay.

Anita Hurt, the colored woman who was thought to be fatally shot about three weeks ago, is well on the way to recovery and will soon be discharged.

A new patient at the Sanitarium is Mrs. Jarso, of Kingston.

SMALL BOY HIT BY AUTO.

* * *

A small boy, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Smallwood, of Magnolia avenue, escaped instant death Thursday afternoon as if by a miracle when he was struck by an automobile on Ridgewood avenue almost in front of the Ridgewood Hotel.

The boy was going south carrying some eggs, and when attempting to dodge a wagon he stepped directly in front of a car being driven by Mr. Olds, accompanied by Mr. Shevis. Fortunately the car was not going at a very high rate of speed, and when the boy was knocked down he passed right under the machine and out of the back, one of the wheels passing over his body. The boy was taken to his home on Magnolia avenue west of the railroad, and Dr. Howe attended him. An examination showed that no bones were broken. Unless some serious internal injuries develop the boy will escape with only some scratches and bruises, which however, are very painful.

To those who saw the accident, it seemed unavoidable, and the wonder is that accidents of like character do not occur every day.

CLARENDON MAY GO TO PORT ORANGE

Tempting Inducements Offered By Geo. F. Lufberry and Bridge Company.

ORMOND IS ALSO IN THE FIELD.

* * *

Dr. E. L. Potter, proprietor of the Clarendon Inn, which was recently destroyed by fire at Seabreeze, has received some very tempting offers to rebuild the hotel elsewhere.

Geo. F. Lufberry and the Port Orange Bridge Company have offered him grants a site of 160 acres, together with other inducements if he will build a hotel on the peninsula near the east end of the Port Orange bridge. The bridge company offers to give him the free use of the bridge for the hotel and its guests for all time. Another argument is that there would be no municipal taxes should he select that site.

Ormond has also offered him a sight, although the acreage is less than at Port Orange.

In a statement to the Daily News last evening Dr. Potter stated that Seabreeze was his first love and that he was loath to consider building a hotel elsewhere, but the Port Orange offer was so tempting that he could not help but give it consideration.

Many of the citizens of Seabreeze have signed a petition asking the council to close the end of Ocean boulevard in order that Dr. Potter might build a concrete hotel on the former site of the Clarendon. It is understood that there is some objection to the movement, however, and on its outcome perhaps depends the question of whether or not the Clarendon will be rebuilt on its former site.

ARE COMING NEXT WEEK.

* * *

The Pack Dramatic and Musical Company, which will play here throughout next week, returns to Daytona after doing a phenomenal business in the South, Mr. Pack has some of New York's most capable actors and actresses in his company and also carries with him this season distinct sets of scenery for each and every play. He has obtained for his repertoire the finest that money can purchase, with which to maintain his reputation of having the best dramatic organization playing in the South. The fact that the company is making week-long engagements at points like Daytona is an assurance that they are able and willing to give a first-class performance, and they will no doubt meet with their usual success while here.

"Automobilia" Was The Timely and Interesting Question—Session a Delightful One.

A NOTED LECTURER IS COMING.

The Palmetto Club Calendar for February 25th showed the afternoon would be devoted to "Automobilia."

"There is a necessary limit to our achievments, but none to our attempts," was the quotation at the head of the page.

Mrs. Horace Stewart had charge of the music, and the program opened with selections from "The Bohemian Girl," played by the Clarendon orchestra.

Mrs. Thomas White gave a good paper on "American Automobiles," from their beginning up to the present time, ending with a humorous poem on "The Automobile."

Miss Pearl Spaulding delighted the audience with her sweet singing of "Long Ago," and for an encore, sang, "Shine, Little Glow Worm." Miss Spaulding was accompanied by the orchestra.

A magazine article on an auto trip entitled "The Road to Steamboat Springs," was pleasantly read by Mrs. Graham Thompson.

The orchestra gave another beautiful selection which was much enjoyed.

Mrs. T. H. White then read an article called "The Automobile," which created much mirth.

PICKED OFF BURGLARS.

(By United Press.)

CINCINNATI, Feb. 26.—Two burglars were shot down while attempting to blow the safe of the John Knellor Liconic Co. early this morning. One of the burglars is dead and the other is dying. Nightwatchman Durser, who did the shooting, is uninjured.

Democrats Play Delay Game.

(By United Press.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—Filibustering by Democrats kept the House in session 17½ hours yesterday, and this morning at 3:30 a recess was finally taken until 11 o'clock. The sundry civil bill is under consideration.

CLARENDON MAY GO TO PORT ORANGE

Tempting Inducements Offered By Geo. F. Lufberry and Bridge Company.

ORMOND IS ALSO IN THE FIELD.

Dr. E. L. Potter, proprietor of the Clarendon Inn, which was recently destroyed by fire at Seabreeze, has received some very tempting offers to rebuild the hotel elsewhere.

Geo. F. Lufberry and the Port Orange Bridge Company have offered him gratis a site of 160 acres, together with other inducements if he will build a hotel on the peninsula near the east end of the Port Orange bridge. The bridge company offers to give him the free use of the bridge for the hotel and its guests for all time. Another argument is that there would be no municipal taxes should he select that site.

Ormond has also offered him a sight, although the acreage is less than at Port Orange.

In a statement to the Daily News last evening Dr. Potter stated that Seabreeze was his first love and that he was loath to consider building a hotel elsewhere, but the Port Orange offer was so tempting that he could not help but give it consideration.

Many of the citizens of Seabreeze have signed a petition asking the council to close the end of Ocean boulevard in order that Dr. Potter might build a concrete hotel on the former site of the Clarendon. It is understood that there is some objection to the movement, however, and on its outcome perhaps depends the question of whether or not the Clarendon will be rebuilt on its former site.

ARE COMING NEXT WEEK.

The Park Dramatic and Musical Company, which will play here throughout next week, returns to Daytona after doing a phenomenal business in the South. Mr. Park has some of New York's most capable actors and actresses in his company and also carries with him this season distinct sets of scenery for each and every play. He has obtained for his repertoire the finest that money can purchase, with which to maintain his reputation of having the best dramatic organization playing in the South. The fact that the company is making week-long engagements at points like Daytona is an assurance that they are able and willing to give a first-class performance, and they will no doubt meet with their usual success while here.

AMERICAN "LORD" AND ENGLISH HEIRESS WHOSE HEART HE WON.

The general order of international engagements was reversed in the case of George Westinghouse, Jr., and Miss Evelyn Violet Brocklebank. Mr. Westinghouse is one of the ablest young men in America's business world, and Miss Brocklebank is the daughter of a wealthy English earl. Their match is the first in many years where an American has married an English heiress.

The Modern Seven Wonders

Daytona's Incomparable Ocean Beach.

One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of ware-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River.

Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy verandas looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her breasts flecked with sloop and boat and snowy-winged sail-birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that infinitely old white-headed pelican perch a fat sunfish, and that fish hawk rising, rising upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, quick and open, their bumpers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid, ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.

Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live-oaks united their giant arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms grand festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy land with offsh dimpses, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the attractive cottage. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our cottages differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of stiffingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the creations of the touch is not revealed but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage, the entire city becomes a great park.

And as for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where else between the eastern and western seas are as many miles in proportion to inhabitants? Till some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.

Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or eye-sullen one may be to many things, for more than one of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pulsation.

For every visitor will a spare "accent" there is a bonny lassie to woo and accept your gift. He will see bold sunlight and gaze into the moral, curling fanfare, many glances at you somewhile.

Flowers? Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. In one yard more of variegated hues predominate, another has a penchant for the poinsettia and the previous are absent, another is full-dos in a jungle of tall cane.

The birds fit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes.

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out.

Here is where world's records for speed are broken with every recurring season. Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure orbicular water from the thousand flowing wells. It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for rate for the auto and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands to it, telling them outlandish, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

Obesity and Will Power.

Obesity is easily cured with the exercise of the proper will and restraint on the part of the patient. Without this, however, the cure is impossible and no physician or medicine can be of any help. The happy medium of positions of fat people their tendency to regard their adipose tissue, even when it does not actually interfere with their characteristics, who is generally one to speculate for their offspring. Family the greatest obstacles in the way of curing them. As a rule, the fat person does just the opposite of what he ought to do. He says the very foods he should avoid, avoids those he should eat, shuns exertion of every kind, indulges in rest and luxury and feels the way of the easiest profession generally. "Will Power."

NEWS OF THE HOTELS

Schmidt's Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Boyter, Orange, N. J.; J. Heller and wife, New York; Edwin F. Deloatch, Jacksonville, were among the arrivals yesterday at Schmidt's Hotel.

Hotel Palm Beach.

The Constitution is eagerly awaited by many tourists who wish to return from Hotel Palm Beach by boat for Daytona. The growing popularity of the ship's trips speaks well for the business of the Clyde Liner boats anticipate when they get their new line of boats going on the Indian river.

The Ridgewood.

The new arrivals at The Ridgewood on Thursday, were the following: Geo. W. Williams, James M. Berry, Cleveland; P. H. Vanhorn, Mrs. A. Dethi, Cincinnati; L. S. Tilney, N. S. Crandall, Chicago; H. O. Winger, Keokuk, Ia.; I. G. Wright, Oswego, N. Y.; Mrs. George H. Parke, Miss Allison, Miss Mary and Miss Dilley, Wheeling, W. Va.; H. J. Clark, Mrs. F. K. Leonard, Dexter, N. Y.; Peter McEvoy, wife and children, Philadelphia; J. H. Smith, C. P. Hubbard, Cedar Rapids, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Stevens, W. C. Frank, N. Y.; Lucile Pace, Deadwood, S. D.; H. W. Love, New Orleans.

The Prince George.

The new guests to arrive at the Prince George yesterday were: B. S. Porter, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Marion S. Rogers, Springfield, Mass.; Mrs. Ida C. Lathrop, Boston; Miss E. C. Sager, Oswego, N. Y.; E. E. McMaster and wife, Detroit.

Mr. McMaster is the western manager of the Continental Automobile Tire Company, and is here to look over the ground in regard to sending their racing car, which won the light car race at Ormond, to the Daytona races in March.

Other guests to arrive at The Prince George were: T. M. Noyes, J. D. Noyes, Binghamton, N. Y.; Mrs. H. E. Webster, Rochester, N. Y.; Mrs. I. Stern and Miss H. Sternberg, Waterberg, S. C.; Mrs. Walter Armitage, Asbury Park, N. Y.; Helen W. Hazard, Pen Yan, N. Y.; E. C. Bross and wife, Brooklyn, Mass.; J. H. Brooks, Atlantic City, N. J.; S. S. Gaulden and wife, C. M. Bailey, Maxwell, Bessey Johnson and lady, New York; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Herbering, Bellingham, Pa.; R. M. Bruce, Akron, O.

Her One Ambition.

She wished to look like the maiden of the big sleeves, and everything about her from dressing eyelashes to nobly molded bosom indicated that she would draw enough trade, or custom, to cover her salary.

But the manager told her that for one of her inexperience she would command only about $6 a week.

She accepted this, if it was the best he could do, but as she was about to turn away she hesitated and asked dismally, looking at him through the drooping lashes, if he supposed $10 would make that $7 a week, as I could have a little laundry done once in awhile?"—St. Louis Republic.

Long Love.

The word "love" is one of the favorites of the Chinookan Indians, who call it "chemiakemoughkaconagan." Fancy a sweet-faced maiden telling her copper colored lover that she "chemiakemoughkaconagan" him. The conjugation of the verb "to love" in that dialect must take at least a year to recite.—Pathfinder.

Reason For Worry.

"Men worry more than women."

"Yes; they not only have everything to worry about that the women have, but they also have the women to worry about too."—Smart Set.

The Despland.

The following new guests arrived at The Despland yesterday: J. D. Edmeston, Zanesville, Ohio; C. F. Phillips, Providence, R. I.; Florence S. Clark, Mrs. F. K. Leonard, Dexter, N. Y.; J. W. Parker and wife, New York City; Mrs. H. L. Lawrence, Mrs. Albert Bryan, Cleveland.

Hotel Palm Beach.

The Constitution is eagerly awaited by many tourists who wish to return from Hotel Palm Beach by boat for Daytona. The growing popularity of the ship's trips speaks well for the business that the Clyde Line boats anticipate when they get their new line of boats going on the Indian river.

The Ridgewood.

The new arrivals at The Ridgewood, on Thursday, were the following: Geo. W. Williams, James M. Henry, Cleveland; P. H. Vankam, Mrs. A. Dethl, Cincinnati; L. S Tiffany, N. S. Critchell, Chicago; R. O. Winger, Keokuk, Ia.; I. G. Wright, Oswego, N. Y.; Mrs. George H. Parke, Miss Allison, Miss Metcalf and Miss Dickey, Wheeling, W Va.; H. J. Clark, Mrs. F. K. Leonard, Dexter, N. Y.; Peter McEvoy, wife and children, Philadelphia; J. H. Smith, C. P. Hubbard, Cedar Rapids, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Stevens, W. C. Frank, N. Y.; Lucile Penn, Deadwood, S. D.; H. W. Lowe New Orleans.

The Prince George.

The new guests to arrive at the Prince George yesterday were: B. S. Porter, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Mareus S Rogers, Springfield, Mass.; Mrs. Ida C. Lathrop, Boston; Miss E C. Angell, Oswego, N. Y.; E. E. McMaster and wife, Detroit.

Mr. McMaster is the western manager of the Continental Automobile Tire Company, and is here to look over the ground in regard to sending their racing car, which won the light car race at Savannah, to the Daytona races in March.

Other guests to arrive at The rince George were: T. M. Noyes, J. D. Noyes, Binghampton, N. Y.; Mrs. H. E Webster, Rochester, N. Y; Mrs. I. Sternberg, Miss H. Sternberg, Waterberg, S. D; Mrs. Walter Armtage, Asburg Park, N. Y.; Helen W. Hazard, Pen Yan, N. Y.; E. C. Brusa and wife, Brookline, Mass.; J. H. Brodes, Atlantic City, N.J.; L. S. Gaulden and wife, C. M. Bielby, DeLand; Henry Johnson and lady, New York; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Heberling Redington, Pa.; M. M. Reese, Athens, Ga.

The first annual ball will be given at The Prince George this evening, the music to be furnished by The Clarendon Orchestra.

Her One Ambition.

She wanted a job, she told the manager of the big store, and everything about her, from drooping eyelashes to neatly molded instep, indicated that she would draw enough trade, or ought to, to cover her salary.

But the manager told her that for one of her inexperience she would command only about $6 a week.

She accepted this, if it was the best he could do, but as she was about to turn away she hesitated and asked demurely, looking at him through the drooping lashes, "Do you suppose you could make that $7 a week, so I could have a little laundry done once in awhile?"—St. Louis Republic.

Long Love.

The word "love" in one of the Indian dialects is "chemlendamoughkunagogagu." Fancy a sweet forest maiden telling her copper colored brave that she "chemlendamoughkunagogagus" him. The conjugation of the verb "to love" in that dialect must take at least a year to recite.—Pathfinder.

Reason For Worry.

"Men worry more than women."

"Yes; they not only have everything to worry about that the women have, but they also have the women to worry about too."—Smart Set.

An Incident of Whistler's Student Days in Paris.

The early scenes in "Trilby" have shown us the hilarious squalor of the student life in Paris when Whistler joined the artistic that Gleyre carried on in succession to Delaroche. It was the Bohemia, bravely modernized, of Murger's novel, and the shifts to which these new recruits in art descended furnished Whistler for life with some of his raciest stories. Once when an American friend unearthed him Whistler was living on the proceeds of a wardrobe. One hot day he pawned his coat for an iced drink. Invited once to the American embassy, he had to borrow Poynter's dress suit. But the best story of these Bohemian days comes from the eternal supply in the Louvre, either on commission or on "view" which kept them alive between restitutions. Whistler's chum, Ernest Delannoy, left done a gorgeous copies of Veronese's "Marriage Feast at Cana" that took when framed the pair of them 15 curry fr. They tried to sell one to every dealer in Paris before of the Seine until the first price of 500 francs had dropped with accumulating interest to 100, then 50, then 5. Suddenly the dignity of art asserted itself.

One of the Paris Arts they lifted the huge canvas. "Pity" said with a great swing, "dese, trois—"then" and over it went into the water with a splash. Sergents de ville came running, conciliatory shopkeepers beach perched out on the river. Altogether it was an immense success, and they were fortunate—Pall Mall Gazette.

THE WRONG NOTE.

Mozart's Outbreak at an Opera Performance at Marseilles.

Mozart, being once on a visit at Marseilles, went incognito to hear the performance of his "Villanella Rapita." He had reason to be tolerably well satisfied till in the midst of the principal aria the orchestra, through some error in the copying of the parts, sounded a D natural where the composer had written D sharp. This substitution did not injure the harmony, but gave a commonplace character to the phrase and obscured the sentiment of the composer.

Mozart no sooner heard it than he started up vehemently and from the middle of the pit could not be a valet, if Giraldo, "Will you play D sharp, you scoundrel?"

The committee perdured in the theatre for not be imagined. The actors were encouraged, the lady who was singing received short, the orchestra [illegible] for example, and the audience, with loud exclamations, demanded the expulsion of the offender. He was accordingly seized and required to name himself. He did so, and at the name of Mozart the clamor subsided and was succeeded by shouts of applause from all sides.

It was indeed that the opera should be recommenced. Mozart was installed in the orchestra and directed the whole performance. This time the D sharp was played in its proper place, and the musicians themselves were convinced of the superior effect produced. After the opera Mozart was conducted in triumph to his hotel.

So shall I, but, at any rate, in this case at least, thirteen was an unlucky number for both the chicks and their owners.—Forest and Stream.

The Thirteen Chicks.

How difficult it is to pick out truth or fiction from apparently straightforward recitals of the actions of animals is well shown in a communication sent to one of our foreign exchanges by a man who lays claim to long experience in breeding game birds. He stated in all seriousness that only two of his pheasant hens had hatched out seventeen of the eighteen eggs placed under each one in the nests. "It is a curious fact," he continues, "that both hatched off on the same day, and each hen immediately killed thirteen out of her seventeen live chicks by pecking their brains and laid them in a row in front of her, each exactly in the same way. I shall be glad to know whether such a singular case has ever been noted before."

So shall I; but, at any rate, in this case at least, thirteen was an unlucky number for both the chicks and their owners.—Forest and Stream.

Only one person with a mean disposition would have figured out this little prose poem. It runs as follows:

Which do you think is the greatest slur?
DID he kiss her?
Did HE kiss her?
Did he KISS her?
Or,
Did he kiss HER?—Cleveland News.

The Great Need.

"Miss Dolly, you know the old adage"—

"I don't want to hear anything about add-ages," she interrupted. "What we girls want is some subtract-ages."—Woman's Home Companion.

LOCAL ITEMS.

F. S. Haslett, of Fort Plain, N. Y., stopped over in Daytona between trains Thursday to see his friend Irving Knowlton, who has a winter home on north Palmetto avenue. Mr. Haslett is traveling with the Raymond touring party.

Tom Ramsay, a press agent for the Park Dramatic and Musical Co., arrived in the city Wednesday and has been busy billing the show for next week. Mr. Ramsay is an energetic young man and the company he represents is undoubtedly an excellent one.

†200 lbs of fine, golden Rio Coffee, received by mistake, for sale at cost, 15c per pound in any quantity. S. W. Carroll 74 2t

Dr. S. W. Carroll has sold the old warehouse in the rear of his store building on North Beach street to W. C. Grant, who has a force of men at work razing it to the ground and removing the material to his place at Daytona Beach. If a plan now under consideration is successfully carried out the old building will later on be replaced by a large modern warehouse for the use of a hotel supply company with a capital stock of from $25,000 to $50,000.

NEWPORT, R. I., Feb. 26.—The funeral of Dr. William T. Bull, the noted surgeon, was held here today. The interment was in the Island cemetery.

A Martha Washington Party.

Mrs. Pratt had a pleasant little neighborhood party at her home on Bay street on Monday, February 22nd. Martha Washington was present in cap and apron and there was much merriment over her age and experience.

About thirty ladies of the vicinity were present and each received a dainty cooky as a souvenir of the day. To Martha was given a hatchet to remind her [illegible]

After enjoying tea and cakes together the ladies departed with many thanks to their hostess for the pleasant afternoon.
